

BRAZILIAN SLATES

Our Brazilian slates offer a flat, smooth surface with subtle tonal variation and a neatly dressed edge, delivering a clean and consistent finish across a wide range of roofing projects. Carefully selected for quality and appearance, Brazilian natural slate has proven to perform well in all regions of the UK, making it a reliable choice for both residential and commercial developments.

Appearance

| | |
|---------|---|
| Colour | Graphite |
| Texture | A smooth very fine grain surface with a traditional dressed edge detail |

Roof Tiling

| | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| Minimum roof pitch | 25° Moderate Exposure 30° Severe Exposure |
| Headlap (minimum) | (85mm -105mm) pre holed at 90mm |
| Batten spacing at maximum gauge | 205mm |
| Size of Tile | 500 x 250mm |
| Covering capacity | 20 slates per m ² (Guide) |
| Cover width | 250mm |
| Weight as laid | 38-40kg per m ² |
| Battens per m ² | 4.88m |
| Batten size | 50 x 25mm |
| Nail size/type of tiles | 30/32mm x 3.35g |

Suitability & Use

Our Brazilian slates offer a flat, smooth surface with subtle tonal variation and a neatly dressed edge, delivering a clean and consistent finish across a wide range of roofing projects. Carefully selected for quality and appearance, Brazilian natural slate has proven to perform well in all regions of the UK, making it a reliable choice for both residential and commercial developments.

Brazilian slate represents excellent value for money, offering the look and performance of premium natural roofing slate without compromising on durability, ethical sourcing, or environmental responsibility. Its consistent grading and uniform thickness make it particularly well suited to hook fixing, helping to speed up installation and reduce labour costs on site. As a cost-effective slate roofing solution, Brazilian slate is a popular option for projects where performance, appearance, and budget all matter.

Origin

The Brazilian natural roofing slates are extracted from a deposit in Brazil.

Quality

The Brazilian slates have been through a stringent selection process at the quarry and tested to the requirements of British and European Standards.

ETHICALLY SOURCED

EXPERTLY CRAFTED

BEAUTIFULLY FINISHED

TRUSTED EXPERTS