

GUARANTEE

By these present terms, MICAPEL SLATE, Brazil, miner company, manufacturer and exporter of the Black Pompeu Slate, hereby guarantees your products for a period of 50 (fifty) years as of the date given below.

It is to be understood that this guarantee covers the degradation of the slate as exposed to normal weather conditions, including any defects in the materials as might as impair or affect the water-tightness of the roof, excepting as due to the natural aging of the stone.

This guarantee does not otherwise cover any breakage, damage or spoilage of the slate due to improper haulage, handling, use of force, poor installation and fixing, nor does it cover any damage caused by fall of the material, storms, hail, or any mishaps whatsoever due to acts of nature.

In the unlikelihood event of the occurring failures due to the composition of the stone, after the due claim was properly lodged and approved by our Quality Department, MICAPEL SLATE shall undertake to replace the defective pieces at no cost to the client, FOB at the port of shipment.
